Miami Sound Machine

Miami Sound Machine created Latin influenced music featuring Gloria Estefan as the lead vocalist. In 1977, they released their first album with all members of Cuban decent. They were widely popular in the 80s and were a staple of dance clubs, movie soundtracks and weddings.

Their most famous song "Conga" was released in 1985 and quickly became a worldwide hit. It was the first ever record to get on the US Pop, Dance, Black and Latin charts and was certified Gold with over 500,000 copies sold. In 1998, 119,000 people conga'd their way into the Guinness book of records to this song.

Miami Sound Machine is a true representation of the 80s and 90s music scene.
