SCREAMING YELLOW ZONKERS!™

Screaming Yellow Zonkers joined the popcorn snack craze in 1968. They were known for their bright yellow, nut free kernels alongside bold, funny graphics. Their whimsical packaging won many awards. One edition was so popular it was even displayed in the Louvre Museum in Paris.

Popcorn is still a top ten munchie - when you add a sugar glaze you get a yellow zonker of a snack! The world is screaming for a fun, delicious, treat not only for snacktime but for anytime.
